How a Judge Solved a Nice Question at Law.

A correspondent tells a story about Judge Kent that is interesting. A case of burglary was being tried before him. The prisoner's name was Cowdry, and the evidence showed that he had cut a hole through a rubber tent in which several persons were sleeping, large enough to admit his arm and head, and had abstracted several articles of value. His counsel took the ground that the prisoner, having only reached into the tent, had not "entered" it, and that on this technicality the defendant should be discharged. In his charge to the jury, Judge Kent, with a grim smile, alfuded to the plea of the prisoner's counsel, and instructed them that, if they were in doubt as to the guilt of the whole man, they might bring him in guilty as far as they judged the evidence would warrant, and the jury, after a brief period of consultation, brought in a verdict against Thos. Cowdry, the prisoner at the bar, of guilty to the full letter of the indictment as to his right arm, his right shoulder and his head. The judge sentenced the arm, the shoulder and the head of said Thomas Cowdry to imprisonment at hard labor in State prison for the term of two years. The prisoner might do with the remainder of his body as he pleased.

Gea McNulta's Pension Granted.

We learned by telegram, on Saturday. hat a bill had passed both houses of congress granting to Gen. John McNulta pension of fifty dollars per month. This is the amount usually allowed by special acts of congress to Major and Brigadier Generals who have distingeneral laws, which is given to all officers under the rank of major, except in cases of special disabilities, where the services of a constant attendant is 5.00 required, then as high as fifty dollars is allowed without reference to rank. We only know of two officers who have received more than this amount, namely Gen. Shields, of Missouri, and Gen Black, of Danville, Ill., each of whom receive $100 per month. They are both badly disabled, the latter having had several inches of bone removed from each arm. The people hereabout will be pleased to hear of this recogni tion of Gen. McNulta's faithful services Judge Davis was an ardent advocate of the bill, having known Gen. McNultu and his worth and merits many years By the Judge's management the passage of the bill was rendered certain.-Bloomington Ex.

AN IRISH SPECULATION.—Chambers Journal. A couple of Irishmen, thinking to combine pleasure with profit by doing a little unlicensed trafficking in liquor on the Derby Day, bought a small jar of whisky and started for Epsom Knowing they would want a drop them-selves on the way, it was agreed that neither should drink without paying .-They had not traveled far on the road when one drank a glass and paid his partner threepence, he followed sui and handed the money back again. It was a dusty, toilsome journey, and upon reaching the Downs they were dumbfounded by discovering the whisky was all gone, and that although they had final result of their speculation.

LIFE OF UPS AND DOWNS .- Louisville Courier-Journal: "Brick" Pomeroy has concluded to go back to La Crosse, Wis., the scene of his earlier newspaper work, where he kept an arsenal in the first years of the war, and pitched into the policy of the government. "Brick" has "hired a hall," and will start another paper. It happens that the quarters he has rented are in a block owned by his first wife, from whom he was divorced some years ago "Brick" is poor now and she is rich.

THE treasury department will be prepared to issue on the 1st of April in addition to $10 certificates convertible into 4 per cent. bonds, a like certificate, on similar conditions, to be registered on the books of the treasury in the name of owner, which name will also be entered on the face of certifi cate. The first class are received from bearer, the other by an order of trans. fer properly attented.

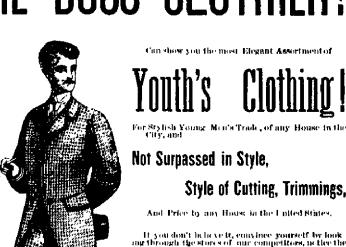

"To Be or Not to Be."-It is a question of importance to all afflicted creatures whether they will be cured of alscase by remedies which leave a long train Great Reduction of bad after effects, or by a medicine that strikes at the cause of the malady and cradicates it, without doing any more of bad after-effects, or by a medicine that PRESERVOOR, for the cure of all diseases caused by malaria, is a palatable, powerful Antiperiodic and Tonic, and yet never produces headache, noise in the ears, deafness or any of the cvils consequent on the use of quinino, arsenic, etc. J. DECATURE BUILDINGS. PRIDAY EVENING, MARCH 21, 1879.

POOR CAPTAIN LYTLE! He has been sailing along smoothly in the postoffice for four years or more, making the people believe that he was an effialent officer, but along comes a new editor weighted down with the responsibility of accomplishing a general reform of all the abuses of the day, and with see swoop of his pen he brushes away the cobwebs that have obscured the public vision, and exposes to the public gase the post-office in all its hideous deformities. The postmaster himself le set down as a nobody, who cannot see that the clerk at the general delivery (Frank Hardy) wastes his time in reading dime novels and flirting with the young girls, and who cannot even appreciate the necessity of clearing the loafors away from the lobby to make reom for the approach of the august and pulseant wielder of that weapon which Richelieu proclaims to be mightier than the sword. Well, wonders will never coase. One by one the cherished idels of the people are broken; the leongelast is abroad in the land, and he is no respecter of persons. He marches heldly up to the shrine made holy by our preyers and secred by our love, he thousehous his truncheon, and, as the house of the Morning Sun fall upon it, he adds another to his list of triumphs. Ita a big thing to be an editor.

GRART AND MIS RIVALS

Ex-Benator Hitchcock, of Nebraska, who, though two years out of public position, is still in active politics, and is regarded as the best political manager in his State, said, in the course of a familiar chat with a New York Trib une reporter, that he regarded Grant's estion in 1880 as almost a certainey. "We must nominate Grant to get even with the patent reformers, and put Moline, $5.44; Quincy, $5.14; Penria, the party back where it was before they began their mischief," he declared. -The ex-Senator is one of the most stalrast of the stalwarts, and is an earnest believer in the merit and expediency of eld-fushioned machine politics.) "The peseral movement," he continued, "is a Nection against namby-pamby notions, begus reform and civil service humbug, es well as a protest against the attitude of the solid Bouth."

"Do you think it will last a year, or is it likely to run itself out, like many popular excitements, before the time stand for it to be effective?" "I look on the Grant feeling as a genuine morement, and one far too strong to avapo-rate in a year. I believe Grant will be pendented by acclamation, and that hobody will attempt to make head teniest him in the convention."

"Are any candidates much spoken of the West besides Grant and Blaine?" Conkling has many supporters. He has won them by his recent course. Formerly he had no friends in our secwas killed off recently—one who might tave some in se Hayes did." "Whom do you mean?" ,"Hartranft, of Pennsylvania. They gave him a Pest Office, and that disposed of him. for the presidency. The thing would the tee abound.

"Has John Sherman any supporters m ever be nominatei sua your way?" "Very few. We Western Republicans think he reproonts the money interest of the East, and we have a notion that these interthat control the Government altogether -too much for the good of men who haven't got much money. It may be that Sherman's success with resumption the sharm a claim to the nomination, the would not be popular in the work."

Still Sore About Bragg

Several weeks ago one of our North orn Democratic brethern, Mr. Bragg, undertook to read a lecture to Southern Democrats, in which he informed them that, unless they abated their pretentions and returned to the humiliating posture they have occupied since the War, he and the rest of the Northern Democrata would go over to the Bepublican party and make common cause with our adversaries. We are glad to bolieve that Mr. Bragg stood alone in the position he took on that occasion. and that his language and sentiments were promptly repudiated by other Northern Democrats, but the fact that any man calling himself a Democrat could have the effrontery to thus wantenly insult the Southern Democrats, who at that very time formed a very large majority of the Democratic party in the House, suggests the propricty and necessity that the Southern Representatives should appreciate and require others to admit their influence in the party that for the next two years at least is to wield the law making power of the Nation.

WASHISHTON, March 20.-Members of the Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections, and Representatives from Kansas in the House, who have carefully examined all the evidence which has been sent and brought here from Topeka, including all the evidence taken before the investigating committee of the logislature of Kansas respecting the alleged bribery in the election of Ingalls, say that from a casual examination there appears to be nothing in the case. The committee, however, in deference to Senator Ingalls' request, will sufficiently review the documents to enable them to make a report on the case at the earliest moment, and, judging from the opinions of members of the committee, will completely exonerate him. The indorsement on the memorial is in the handwritting of ex-Senator Pomeroy, whose record both in Kansas and here is not very satisfactory. A prominent member from that State to-day said it was a scheme concocted against him by malcontents and political lepers.

ANOTHER CINCINNATI HORROR.

Washington, March 20.—The Dem ocratic Senators went into concur at 10 a'clock, to nominate offices of the Senate. On the seventh ballot; Colonel Burch, the editor of the Nashville American, was nominated as Secretary, receiving 20 out of the 10 votes cast. Henry Watterson was the next highest candidate. The caucus, at 12 o'clock, adjourned, to meet again immediately after the adjournment of the Senate, when the other officers will be nomina

The action of the Democratic Sena torial caucus was watched with much interest by a large crowd of applicants for office, who waited the result in the Senate Chamber and in the corridors The nomination of Colonel Bright, of Indiana, as Sergeant at Arms (a nephew of Jesse D. Bright, the famous copperhead during the war) created but little surprise. Ex Representative Shober. North Carolina, was nominated as Chief Clerk.

The Democratic caucus nominated Colonel Sexton, who was a mëmber of General Lee's staff, as Executive Clerk of the Senate. The South has three of the four officers nominated.

Republican Senators are disturbed ver an intimation that the President is disposed to advise an acceptance of the compromise proposed by leading Democrats in regard to the repeal of the Election laws, to repeal the clause authorizing Deputy Marshals to make arrests at the polls. Senator Dawes said to day that there would be no back down on the part of the Republicans in the Senate, that they were a unit on not allowing the Election law to be repeated or modified, and that if the President yielded he would fell be tween two stools. Senator Ferry said that he and other Republican Senators had been to see the President and urge him to stand firm and not make any concession to the Democrats, but to throw the responsibility upon the Dem acrats of passing the Appropriation bills. The Republicans of the House are nearly unanimous on this question, but there are a few who are willing to make a compromise. Of the New England members, Dr. Loring is the only one who favors the proposed compro-mise, but it is said that he does this

The House took up the charges preferred against Representatives Young and Butterworth, of the Cincinnati Districts, soon after meeting to day, and adopted a resolution to appoint a special committee of seven to investi gato the same. At the instance of General Carfold, the committee was also advised to make un investigation into the workings of the Super worth made a short but effective speech in support of the resolution, declaring that he had always fought corruption in every form, and that he courted the fullest investigation.

The House, after disposing of that matter, adjourned, and the Democrats of the House immediately went into CAUCUS.

CINCINNATI, March 20.-Cincinnati was in the wildest kind of excitement to-day over what is believed to be the approach to the crisis in the Baldwin murder mystery. CINCINNATI, O., March 20 .- A latter to the public from Archbishop Purcell ing the struggle of his early life, his rethan $500,000 was money deposited. The rest is the result of compound interest. As a proof he cites the instance which occurred yesterday, where a creditor called with a claim of $1,100. In presenting it he admitted that $800 of it was interest, and expressed a willingness to accept $300, the amount of the original deposit. The claims of hundreds of others are of the same nature. The indebtedness of the diocese in equity does not amount to more than $1,000,000, to place it at its highest figure. He says, further, that for twenty years no general collection has been taken up for the support of the diocesan seminary, the entire burden of educating the priests falling upon the Archbishop. He paid the salaries of the professors, fed, clothed and educated the seminarians. He also paid the expenses, during the same period, of ecclesiastical students at Mount St. Mary's, Emmetaburg, in France and in Rome. In twenty years these expenses, which in justice the whole diocese should have borne, amounted to a vast sum. While in Europe he bought for the library 16,000 volumes, with philosophical apparatus, etc., which required a large expenditure, and which, with sums spent in building the orphan asy lum, the cathedral and other buildings, finally swamped him. The Archbishop then rehearses the dination, declaring but for the generous sympathy of Catholics and Protestants alike he would have sunk under the weight of his troubles. LITTA.

A dozen years ago, or thereabouts, a concert at Macon Hall by Prof. Von was then represented as a musical prodisy. Boores of our citizens still remember that concert, and the childish voice which gave premise of such great things a the future. The years rolled on and Marie came again, after she bagan to bleom out into the professional vocalist. and shortly before her departure for Europe. At that time her family resided here, and our people therefore claim an interest in her, and a share in her subsequent triutaphs. They have accordingly watched her course with great interest, and when it was appounced that she would sing to her old Decatur friends their joy knew no bounds. The audience which assembled at the tabernacie last night was not only one of the largest ever brought together in De calur, but it was also one of the most fashionable and select. The chief fuature of attraction being Mille. Litta, we other performers in general terms, by saying that they did exceedingly well. The appearance of the prima denna was the ignal for bearty applause, and when she struck the first note of the sublime aria from Lucia it was apparent that the audience was not to be disappointed. At every pause in the score the singer was applauded, and when she retired from the lage there was such a storm of cheers as was never heard in Decatur before. Miss Litta graciously responded, giving "The last Rose of Summer," which she song with great feeling. Her subsequent numbers were received with the same enthusiasm, and both times she was recalled, the last time responding with "Home, Sweet Home." Such an ovation was never before hestewed on a singer in Decatur, and Litta may well be moud of the manner in which she was greeted by her old

Litta possesses a voice of singular puriy, which, naturally flexible, has been cultivated with the greatest care and the most charming results. We have never brard a sweeter voice, air ope managed with more skill. Her stage presence is almost faultiess, and it is no wonder that she creates a furare wherever she appears She hopes to come to Decatur again, when our people will have an opportunity of bearing her in opera.

Parecorr's New Music Partous.-Mr. C. B. Prescott, who is at present in New York, on husiness, will, on or about the church. Elder Hoynes preached last first of April, open an extensive and magnifluent line of planos, organs and musical merchandlse generally, is opera block, No. 55 Water street. The instruments will be the finest ever shown in this city. Mr. Prescott, who has been doing business in Posteffice block for so many years, is well known to our citizens as a first-class buriness man, and we doubt not his new venture will be one of profit to himself and a public benefit. Decator ought to establishment.

11.M S PRAYORE. - Several of our citizens have had an opportunity to witness this wonderful extravaganza at other places and all pronounce it one of the finest entertainments they have ever seen. Both the singing and acting are of the highest order and cannot fail to please. This is also the verdict of the press wherever the company appears. This evening Decatur people will have an apportunity to see and hear the play for themselves. Present indications are that there will be list. a crowded bouse.

On THE HULT .-- The young man who was so thoroughly fleeced at the Biley House on Wednesday is still languishing in borrowed clothes and hunting for the tion by this evening. well improve bla time in hunting for a job, for he will probably never see his that game don't usually hang around town very long after accomplishing their purpose. If the young man gets well posted in the ways of the world at the slight expense of two suits of clothes and a dollar in money, he is getting his education at a very remonable figure.

Turk tramp question is forcing itself upon the attention of the city authorities with the opening of spring. Fifteen or twenty are hanging around the railroad track in the Wabash yard in the vicinity of Waterstreet. Lumber piles and box cars sholter them at night, and they put in the day in begging for something to eat from house to house.

Manute Mitchell -This popular not ress is to appear at the opera-house on Wednesday, March 26th, in Lorle, or the Artist's Dream. This is one of the most popular and taking drames now being presented to the American people, and in her role as Lorle, Miss Mitchell is as immense as she is in Fanchon, in which character she appeared when last in Decatur. Miss Mitchell is always popular in Decatur, and she will doubtless have a crowded house on Wednesday night.

SCHOOL EXAMINATIONS .- Yesterday and to-day the classes in the high school have undergone the usual examination at the close of the winter term, and to day the time in the several ward schools has been as large as la desirable on such occasions. but we learn that the examinations have been highly satisfactory, showing diligence in study on the part of the pupils, and competency and fidelity on the part of the teachers. The scholars will now have a week for rest after which they will enter upon the work of the closing term for the FARCT PRIMAISHIP,-Mr. G. H. Dyer, late of the Jacksonville Commercial Col-organizing a class in penmanship. He has block, south of the main entrance, and all who wish to join the class will meet there on Tuesday evening next. We have seen specimens of Mr. Dyer's work, and we have no besitancy in pronouncing them first-class-a good index of his ability as a penman and teacher. He has taught two terms at Clinton, where he had very large classes. Remember the class meets Tuesday evening, in opera block.

New Davio Firm .- Messes, J. J. Finn and R. B. Hostetler have taken possession of the Morgan street drug store lately owned by W. W. Swearingen. The new firm will be known as Finn & Hostetler Mr. Finn is a practical druggist, and we bespeak for the new proprietors a prosperous business enreer.

A Local Love Affair.

"For mercy's sake," she said, "let go my hands-and leave me forever. I have told you twenty times I cannot, will not, marry you. I could never love you, my heart is another's."

He tightened his grasp still more con vulsively until she cried out with pain.-Her determined refusal had quite exasperated him. At length he gasped, "If it must be so, it must be, but before parting forever, I have one request to ask of you-a promise which will cost you little self-demal to fulfill; but at the same time one that will add some little solsce to my now miserable existence. My fortune has been of fered at your disposal, and I have showered presents of the most costly kind upor you to soften your hard heart; yet you have rejected all my advances and will not listen to my story of love: but-." and here his voice, inliered, while tears began to glisten on his eyelids, "Before bidding you a long, very long, and last farewell, promise me, do promise me this one thing, that you will go with me to Aunt Polly Basset's Singing Skewl next Monday eve ning, at the inbernacle. 'Yes! Yes!" she whispered, "I will,

will! Adieu! A -- doo!"
